

Press accreditation is now open

On April 20th the doors will open to the 10th edition of SUPERMARKET – Stockholm Independent Art Fair. During four intense days, the art fair will exhibit 61 artist-run galleries and other initiatives from 40 cities around the world. Do you want to cover the most international art fair in Scandinavia? Please apply for accreditation today.

SUPERMARKET is an important venue for the international artist-run art scene. Here, visitors, journalists and art professionals from all over the world meet each other in creative chaos. Over 100 contemporary artists will be at the art fair and available for interviews.

The press accreditation gives you full access to the exhibition, the seminar program TALKS and the performance stage RED SPOT. At the press office we will help you book interviews and prepare press kits. Read more about accreditation here.

Please apply for press accreditation by sending us an email to accred@supermarketartfair.com
Information required: first and last name, working title, workplace and referee.

The accreditation is not valid until approved by the press office.

The Press Viewing will take place on April 20th at 3pm in Svarta Huset, Telefonplan, Stockholm.

For information about this year's exhibitors, please visit www.supermarketartfair.com/exhibitors/2016

Contact:

Christina Wenger

Press officer

press@supermarketartfair.com

+46 73 991 66 17

Felicia Gränd

Press assistant

pressassistant@supermarketartfair.com

When? 21–24 April 2016, press viewing 20 April

Where? Svarta huset, LM Ericssons väg 26,
Telefonplan, Stockholm

Supermarket is an art fair run by artists. Artist-run galleries and similar initiatives from around the world show the work of hundreds of artists at the fair.

With its clear mission and its programme for networking meetings, Supermarket has become a unique platform for Swedish and international artists.