

SUPERMARKET – Stockholm Independent Art Fair announces the 2017 Exhibitors list

Today SUPERMARKET announces the artist-run galleries selected to participate in the latest edition of Scandinavia's most international art fair – Supermarket 2017.

The eleventh edition of SUPERMARKET gathers 74 artist-run initiatives from 45 cities around the world during the four days from 23 to 26 March 2017. More than 200 artists exhibit.

SUPERMARKET 2017 presents a variety of familiar faces as well as new ones. Artists from Europe and Scandinavia will be represented alongside artist-run initiatives from Argentina, Iran and Egypt. First-time exhibitors include Galería Metropolitana from Chile, L'Atelier Observatoire/Madrassa from Morocco and Brodac Gallery from Bosnia and Herzegovina. Among returning galleries are MUU Gallery from Helsinki, 1646 from Netherlands, Ormston House from Ireland and many more.

Since it began SUPERMARKET has focused on a broad spectrum of themes in the context of artist-run initiatives. Last year, at SUPERMARKET's 10-year jubilee, we discussed the changes in the artist-run scene during the last decade. SUPERMARKET 2017's theme is 'Intimacy': how do we sustain intimacy in a world that essentially works against it?

SUPERMARKET 2017 also includes the public programme TALKS & PERFORMANCE, with performance art, conversations and presentations, as well as exchange of knowledge and our popular Professional Networking Participants programme (PNP).

New for SUPERMARKET 2017 – a whole new floor with an additional 700 square meters of exhibition space!
