SUPERMARKET 2013 – Stockholm Independent Art Fair

Kulturhuset 15–17 February 2013

Welcome to this year's happiest art event!

For the fourth year in a row, Kulturhuset (the House of Culture in Stockholm) will be filled by some of the most innovative art from around the world. From the mountains of Lappland to a hot South Africa and then another tour around the globe.

"I'm incredibly happy that we make room for what has evolved into one of Sweden's most interesting and international art events: SUPERMARKET" said Kulturhuset's director Eric Sjöström. With hundreds of artists from over 30 different countries SUPERMARKET is the most international art exhibition in Sweden, and with 87 galleries on two entire floors of Kulturhuset it is the Nordic region's largest art fair. SUPERMARKET is also unique because it is run by artists. The Project Managers are Meggi Sandell, Pontus Raud and Andreas Ribbung.

SUPERMARKET TALKS – the seminar programme includes discussions and debates about art and society. This year, the theme is Happiness. SUPERMARKET 2013 examines the degree of success of the artist-run scene and its artists. "Does art make you happy?", "May art be happy?" and "What makes an artist happy?" are some questions that will be discussed.

The artist-run galleries come from: Albania, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Canada, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Egypt, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Latvia, Morocco, Mozambique, the Netherlands, Norway, New Zealand, Poland, Portugal, Switzerland, Serbia, Singapore, Slovakia, Spain, Sudan, Sweden, South Africa, South Korea, the United States and Vietnam.

When: 15–17 February 2013. Opening hours: Friday 11–22, Saturday 11–20, Sunday 11–18. Press preview: 14 February, for which the time will be announced later.

Where: The third and fifth floors of Kulturhuset in central Stockholm.

Exhibition: Hundreds of artists, 87 artist-run galleries and similar artists' initiatives from over 30 countries.

More on the programme: seminar programme TALKS, performance art stage RED SPOT, networking meetings and more.
