

Press release 2013-12-05

KULTURHUSET
STADSTEATERN

SUPERMARKET 2014 – Stockholm Independent Art Fair. The fair that makes a difference.

SUPERMARKET will take you around the world in three days! The fair won the BUS Award in 2013 and is a platform for the newest, most vital and innovative international art. With over 80 exhibitors from 30 countries worldwide it is the largest international art event in Scandinavia. SUPERMARKET 2014 is the ninth fair and will be held at Kulturhuset (House of Culture) in Stockholm on the 14–16 of February.

Next year's fair will be the only large international art fair during February in Stockholm. Georgia, Syria, Tibet and Brazil are new countries to be represented.

The SUPERMARKET programme will be full of interesting events, including the performance stage RED SPOT, the seminar series TALKS, and the networking meetings programme SUPERMARKET MEETINGS. Since 2011 SUPERMARKET is producing its own Art Magazine, distributed worldwide.

“As this is a site for artist-run galleries from all around the world, we want to highlight diversity and the unique experiences represented” says one of the Project Managers, Meggi Sandell. “It will be relevant, up-to-date and make a difference!”

WHEN AND WHERE? 14–16 February 2014 in Kulturhuset, floors 3 and 5.

Information about the theme, exhibitors, programme and sponsors will be published at www.supermarketartfair.com.

CONTACT

Pontus Raud, Project Manager, +46 709 45 17 24

Andreas Ribbung, Project Manager, +46 703 36 58 62

Meggi Sandell, Project Manager, meggi@supermarketartfair.com

Izabella Borzecka, Project Coordinator, izabella@supermarketartfair.com

Mathilda Hogg, Press/Accreditation: press@supermarketartfair.com or accred@supermarketartfair.com

ABOUT SUPERMARKET

An annual artist-run art fair for artist-run galleries. The aim is to provide a showcase for artists' initiatives from all over the world and to create opportunities for networks in the Swedish and international art scene.

