

PRESS RELEASE 2014-11-11

Supermarket 2015 will be at a new venue – Svarta Huset (The Black Box)

Supermarket – Stockholm Independent Art Fair is happy to announce that we are moving to a new venue on a new date. Previously held in February, Supermarket 2015 will take place at Svarta Huset (The Black Box), located in the intensively creative area of Telefonplan, from April 16th to 19th 2015.

Because of the change of venue Supermarket 2015 will be more focused: but it will still be a truly international art fair. We will show art from 28 countries. Argentina, Tanzania, Iran and Palestine are countries that will be represented for the first time at Supermarket 2015.

“After five years at Kulturhuset we feel like it’s time for renewal. We’re very excited to move to Telefonplan, it really is a creative environment that keeps developing all the time. It will suit Supermarket perfectly”, says Project Manager Andreas Ribbung, one of the three artists that run Supermarket.

The Supermarket TALKS programme offers seminars and debates about representation in the arts, which is next years theme. Who is visible?

Supermarket will present the performance stage RED SPOT, which shows new, innovative performance art from all over the world. Supermarket will also be broadcasting Super-TV, creating the opportunity to follow the fair online. Supermarket Art Magazine, now in its fifth edition, will be available as a guide to and record of the fair’s diversity and strength.

Supermarket 2015 offers a not-to-be-missed week for all lovers of international contemporary art!

CONTACT

Pontus Raud, Project Manager: +46 (0) 70-945 17 24, pontus@supermarketartfair.com
Andreas Ribbung, Project Manager: +46 (0) 70-336 58 62, andreas@supermarketartfair.com
Meggi Sandell, Project Manager: meggi@supermarketartfair.com
Izabella Borzecka, Project Coordinator: izabella@supermarketartfair.com
Mathilda Hogg, Press Officer, press@supermarketartfair.com / accred@supermarketartfair.com

ABOUT SUPERMARKET

Supermarket is, since 2007, the Nordic countries’ leading international art fair. It is an annual artist-run art fair for artist-run galleries. The aim is to provide a showcase for artists’ initiatives from all over the world and to create opportunities for networks in the Swedish and international art scene.